What Is a Blended Gift?

A blended gift combines the power of a current or annual gift with a planned gift. Combining your gifts can be a very attractive way for you to achieve your financial and estate planning goals while helping further our mission.

Blended Gift Strategies

In addition to making your annual gifts to us this year, you might consider the following:

- Charitable life income plans, including charitable gift annuities and charitable remainder trusts
- Bequests and/or beneficiary designations of IRAs, financial accounts or life insurance policies

How Blended Gifts Work

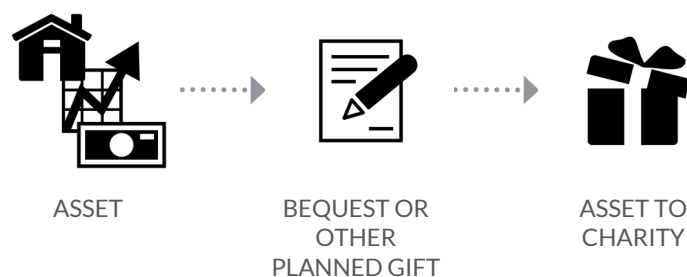

A charitable life income gift can be added to your annual gifts to enhance your financial security, increase the impact of your giving, provide greater tax savings and leave a future legacy gift to further our mission.

1. Make a Gift Today

Like many of our longtime supporters, you may desire to make a significant gift but you may not be ready to make a large gift today. This type of gift may be possible if your gift is made through your will or trust or as a beneficiary designation gift.

2. Plan for Tomorrow

If you have already included a bequest in your will or have created a planned gift, you can begin to see the current impact of your giving by adding outright gifts of cash or property today. You can avoid capital gains tax by making a gift of real estate, stock or other appreciated investments.

Definitions

Charitable Life Income Plans

Giving plans where you can make a gift of an asset and in return receive a lifetime stream of payments. Upon your passing, the remainder principal is distributed to one or more charities.

Beneficiary Designation

Leaving a financial account, retirement account or insurance policy to another person, trust or an organization using a simple form, typically provided by a financial services or insurance company. The beneficiary can be one or more individuals and/or organizations, such as a trust or charity.

Planned Gift

A planned gift is a charitable gift where the donor takes steps today to arrange for a gift that will benefit us in the future. Bequests, charitable gift annuities and charitable trusts are common forms of planned gifts.
